
Inherent in our democracy are the freedoms that the peoples of this nation have acclaimed as their own. But the successors who will inherit these liberties must also accept the responsibility of defending and upholding them. While the world remains in such a turmoil, the prime duty of this nation's inhabitants is to strive toward an ultimate goal of international peace. Only through their mature attitudes can people hope to attain the insight to achieve their purpose. The young men and women of America must realize this ambition, for theirs is to define and pursue the PATH TO PEACE.

The Junior Plaque is awarded to the boy and girl who achieved the highest scholastic rating in three years of high school. The Class of '62, however, had within its ranks four students who qualified for this honor, representing diligent study and hard work. Those who received the Junior Plaque from this class were Julie Crowder, Janet McCombs, Stewart Hobson, and John Prueitt.

scholarship banquet

The Community Scholarship Banquet was introduced in 1960. It is a dinner held annually in the latter part of the school year to honor those students from Lost Hills, Semitropic, Thomas Jefferson, St. John's, and Wasco High who are recognized by their faculties as being scholastically talented and academically proficient in their class. A student selected to attend this scholarship banquet receives a Certificate of Outstanding Scholarship from the Mayor of Wasco, and can rightfully feel honored.

tiger pins--1961

Students become qualified for a "Tiger Pin" on the basis of participation in school activities. To receive this pin the student must earn 100 points or more during the year, and be among the top 3 per cent of the student body. Service Pin points are also considered in awarding scholarships. Those students qualifying for a "Tiger Pin" in 1961 were:

his message

Once again it is time to look back on another school year. This brings to mind the fine work and the many accomplishments of the students and the faculty. The people of the Wasco Union High School District may be very proud of their school. It is with pride and gratitude that we review this very fine pictorial history. The Wasconian Staff and Advisor are to be congratuated on the beautiful, permanent history of the year's activities and achievements.

To welcome the freshmen to Wasco High an All School Party was held September 15. Skeptical at first, the novices soon found being freshmen was not as bad as they had heard.

Quickly becoming part of the school, they participated in all school activities, including rallies, games, elections and parties. Nearly all of the frosh joined some of the campus clubs.

Scholastically speaking, the freshmen did well, as nearly thirty percent of the Honor Roll students were frosh. Straight A semester records were received by some of the frosh.

Next year they will be sophomores, on their way to becoming mighty seniors, and the graduating class of 1965.

class of 1964

On September 11, 1961, the mighty sophomores entered good old Wasco Union High School. We had finally become full-fledged members of the student body, and what a good feeling that was! Now, we were older and more experienced, ready to cope with any problem which might confront us as superior sophomores.

Helping us with these problems were our very capable advisors for this year, Mr. Clifford Harrington and Mrs. Alice Hammer. They assisted in all our class and school activities, helping us to reach greater goals.

Also aiding us in every way was our fine roster of class officers. Their strong leadership helped guide us through the year.

One of the most exciting and important events was the selection of our class ring on February 8. This event signified that we would soon be upperclassmen, an achievement long looked forward to, although this, our sophomore year, will never be forgotten.

The juniors, enjoying their role as upperclassmen, worked at various activities during their third year on this campus. In selling at the Wasco-Shafter football game they were ably assisted by their class advisors, Mrs. Isaak and Mr. Sears. They competed in the rally contest where they were once again humiliated by the other classes. Advised by Mr. Mendenhall, they prepared the junior play. "Our Girls." The various talents were demonstrated as they presented several different acts in the Junior Assembly.

The school year reached its climax when they participated in presenting another fine Junior-Senior Banquet. Now, at the end of the year, the juniors are anticipating a highly successful term as seniors.

Norm Average, class of '62, entered Wasco High with high hopes of adventure. There were one-hundred sixty-nine members in his class, and all of them were convinced that they would be the best class ever to attend Wasco High School.

During his freshman year, Norm didn't show a great deal of interest in rallies—at least, not enough to succeed. One rally contest was won, and that was all. Norm helped to elect the class officers—presidents, Ted Heinrichs and Marilyn Movsesian; vice-presidents, Bonnie Bridge and Jean Forth; secretaries, Wendy Pueschel and Julie Crowder; and treasurers, Sharon Eskew and Ruth Appel. Under their capable leadership Norm learned a lot, and he gained in determination.

The results showed up in Norm's sophomore year. His class not only won the rally contest but also placed first in the inter-class track meet. Norm served at the Junior-Senior Banquet, and he enjoyed its Hawaiian theme. He again elected officers—Mike Hammond and Doug Hankins as presidents; Marilyn Hahn and Carol Sue McKimmey as vice-presidents; Marilyn Bauer and Bonnie Bridge as secretaries; and Janet McCombs and Marione Bauer as treasurers.

Norm's junior year arrived, and so did the class rings. The junior play was a big success: "Penny," as played by Wendy Pueschel, was a memorable character. First semester officers were president, Ted Heinrichs; vice-president, Richard Terrell; secretary, Julie Crowder; and treasurer, John Prueitt. Norm helped to plan the Junior-Senior Banquet theme of "Shangri-La" and enjoyed attending as a guest instead of a humble server. He elected as second semester officers: president Junior Garmon; vice-president, Dave Schieber; secretary, Linda Sigler; and treasurer, Stewart Hobson.

to joyce moseley

The day has passed when ecstasy was flung
Upon romantic altars; when immense
The future loomed with all its rich suspense—
And you and I and our dear friends were young.

Instead, as rushing rivers come to peace
On flats along the near-engulfing sea,
Spreading in silver twilight as they run
Becalmed, unhurrying, toward release—
So runs the silent stream of memory
Through windless landscape in the fading sun.

Although their 1961 season record was not the most impressive, our Wasco High Tigers provided some of the most exciting football ever. Ending the schedule with a 4 won 4 lost 1 tied record, the Tigers at times showed signs of seriously bidding for the loop crown.

Lack of seasoned experience proved to be the main weakness of this year's squad. The most exciting contest would have to be that of the gruelling 21-21 tie against Shafter. All things considered, this year's crew had a very successful season, gaining much valuable experience in their preparation for manhood.

Special awards went to Dave Schieber, "Jay Wedel" Award; Sherril Boyett, Most Valuable Player; Larry Bartel, Most Inspirational; Gordon Heinrichs, Most Improved Player; and Tim Gilmer, Citizenship-Scholarship Award.

Just as predicted, the same team that could manage only one victory last season came through the 1961 schedule as league champions, having a perfect record in league competition. Without exception, the entire first string consisted of the same fellows who played on last year's cellar dwellers.

If the team lacked anything in size, it more than made up for it in speed and spirit. The members on the championship team of 1961 have a right to be very proud of a most successful season.

Special awards went to Howard Cotter and Don Perales as captains, and Jim Tracy as the most valuable player.

Picked as pre-season favorites, the Wasco High Tigers seemingly under-rated the weaker teams in league play, emerging from the loop scramble in a three-way tie for second behind cross-town rival Shafter.

Compiling a respectable 12 won, 8 lost record, the Tigers played eratic ball, sometimes up to potential, other times falling off the groove.

The Jack Burtner-mentored basketballers played perhaps their finest and poorest games in the final week-end of play, pounding Garces 64-30, only to succumb to Shafter the following night, 31-38.

Charles Walton, Wilkie Webster, Carl Spradlin, Tim Gilmer, Sherril Boyett, and Chuck Gaither rounded out the first six players.

In spite of having only one returning Cub, Lee Farley, the Bob Easter-coached basketballers played superb team ball, completing the season in a tie for the championship with arch-rival Shafter. In the process they garnered a very commendable seasonal record of 13 wins compared to 4 losses, their league record being 10 wins, 2 losses.

Besides Shafter, the Cub's most satisfying victory was over bigger East Bakersfield, proving the team's roundball prowess.

Rounding out the starting five besides Farley were Cordell Jackson, Leroy Callahan, Don Perales, and Dick Permenter.

Playing best under pressure, the Kitten edition of Wasco High teams proved that they were not push-overs, ending the season with a league record of 4 wins, 6 losses. This record, however, isn't indicative of the improved late season performances turned in by the Kittens.

Dale Dillingham's charges improved with every game, their most convincing win coming over hapless Corcoran, 54-11.

The customary starting five consisted of Cecil Flournoy, Larry Garland, Lester Acklin, Charles Caldwell, and Phil Golleher.

EDDIE GONZALES

Due to several drop-outs and transfers to other schools, this year's cross-country team was forced with a complete rebuilding job. The loss of Jerry Aronson (who went to East Bakersfield) and John Prueitt (injury) proved to be a sad blow to the team.

Bobby Miller, most valuable runner and varsity captain, broke the existing valley record with a time of 8:45.0 for the 1.8 mile course at the valley meet. Final statistics placed Bobby ninth in the valley standings.

Other outstanding performers were Gonzalo Romo and Eddie Gonzales.

Another year of outstanding performances paved the trail of Wasco's 1962 "powerhouse" track and field teams. They rolled over all opposition in dual and triangular competition and were continually among the pace-setters in Kern County.

Leading the varsity team was the "quick" Thornton Marks, running the 180 LH (20.1), 120 HH (15.0), and 100 (10.1), broadjumping (21'0"), and anchoring the 880-yard relay team. Junior Sherrill Boyett contributed many points in the 120 HH (14.9), 180 LH (120.6), and relay team. Bob Morrison surprised many in the hop, step and jump (45'-10¾"), rating him number one in the nation according to the National Track and Field News. Bob also broadjumped (22'-0") ran the 100 (10.3), 220 (22.8), and the first leg on the relay team. Bill Gray continued his assault on the record books by upping his own shot put record to 54'-6½", and achieving a personal best in the discus (152'-9½"). Following right behind was Thad Moore in the same events with marks of 47'-3" and 144'-5½". Completing the top performances for varsity class were Charles Walton, 880-yard relay, high jump, broad jump; Bob Miller, 880 (2:5), mile (4:40); Robert Penner, 180 LH (21.9), broadjump (20'9"); John Prueitt 440 (53.1); and freshmen Rick Baze in the discus (138'-8").

Top performers in class "B" were Jim Beasley in the pole vault (11'-6"), 440 (54.6), 70 HH (9.6), and relay team; John Butler with bests in 100 (10.9), broadjump (19'-5½"), and relay team; Fred Butler in the high jump (5'-7") and relay; Eddie Gonzales in the pole vault (11'-0") and 440 (56.0); Wendell Williams in the 160 LH (19.7); and Bill Winton in the hurdles and broadjump (19'-9").

Wasco's small but mighty "C" team was always in there trying, and they, too, won their share of meets. Cordell Jackson paved the way with record jumps in the pole vault (11'-8¾") and high jump (5'-8½"), plus 120 LH (14.6) and relay team. Cecil Flournoy contributed valuable points in the 100 (10.9) and 120 LH (14.4) as did Jim Kloeppel in the 660 (1:35) and 1320 (3:39.5). Bill Craig and Ray Ruiz aided the cause in the discus (107'-8") and (104'-6") respectively, and in the shot (40'-4") and (41'-6"). Richard Miller was a surprise in the high jump (5'-6") and 330 (41.2). Four-feet-ten-inch David Demery consistently jumped over his head with a top leap of 5'-4".

This year the annual Wasco 20-30 Relays were staged under the lights with 25 participating schools. The meet proved a great success, with Wasco sweeping both the "A" and "B" titles, the varsity win being their seventh in a row. Just two weeks later, Wasco again showed her colors, taking the sweepstakes award at the Kern Relays held in Bakersfield. Outstanding marks and records were recorded by Bob Morrison in the hop, step and jump (45'-10¾"); Bill Gray in the shot put (54'-6½"); and Cordell Jackson in the pole vault (11"-8¾").

The South Sequoia League Meet was held in Wasco this year, with varsity taking first place. The "B" and "C" teams didn't fare so well, the former notching a third, the latter settling for fifth place. In winning the varsity competition, Wasco turned in several record setting performances. Most notable was Boyett's 120 HH (14.6), breaking his previous best by three-tenths of a second, and his tie for first in the 180 lows (20.1). Morrison also came through with valuable points, placing third in the 100 (10.0) and second in the broadjump (22'-0"). Running his second-100-yard dash, Gaither turned in a fast time (10.1). Members of the 880-yard relay team (1:32.2) were Morrison, Boyett, Walton and Marks. Gray took a first in the shot put (54'5") as did Boyett in the high jump (5'-9"). Jackson also set a new standard in the "C" pole vault (11'-7¾").

Although only seven seniors graduated from this year's squad, Coach Darby reports that they will really be missed next year.

After settling for second place last year, the Tigers from Wasco appeared well on their way to a league championship. Toughest competition appeared to be Coalinga and Lemoore.

Bolstered by a large return of experienced ballplayers, the Terry-men showed great potential. Not only were they strong afield, but experienced batting eyes prevailed throughout the line-up.

Returning letter winners included one southpaw Butch Boyett, credited with three no-hitters last year, curve-balling Chuck Gaither, pitcher-catcher Tim Gilmer, third baseman Jerry DeVoe, sophomore outfielder-short-stop Dick Permenter, second baseman Larry Bartel, and first-baseman Stan Loewen. Gaining a league championship last year, the Varsity appeared on its way to a second consecutive crown. Although many first team members were missing from this year's ranks, a strong group of freshmen bolstered the team's power.

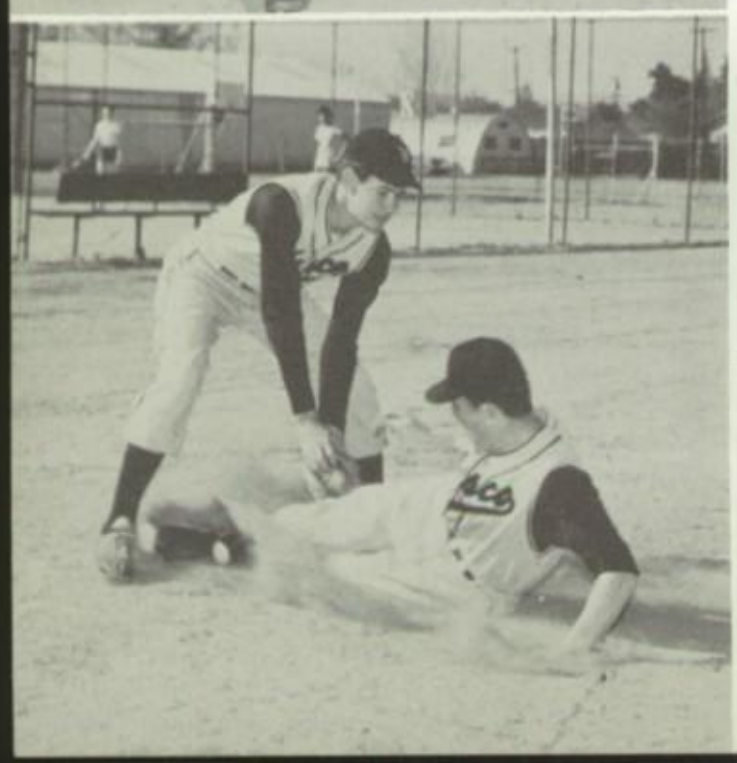
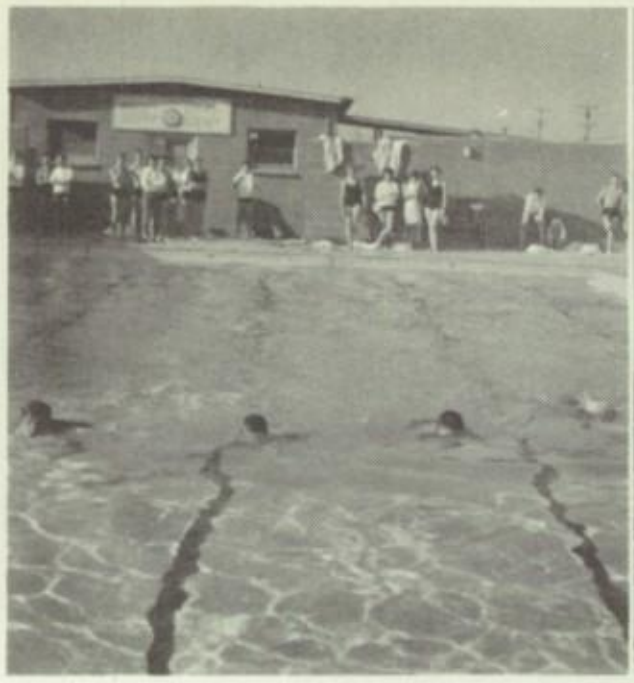
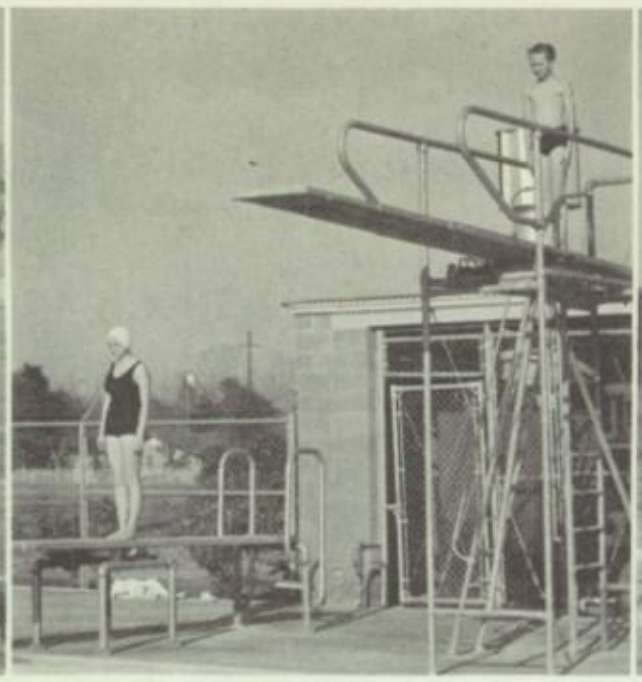
Returning starters included Lee Farley, Don Perales, Tom Doyel, Harold Williams, Kris Pueschel and Bruce Twining.







Under the able guidance of coaches Mary Mills and Bill Clement, this year's swim team showed great capabilities. Depth appeared throughout the squad, especially in the male segment.

Having won several early season meets, the Wasco aquanauts had a very successful season, showing potential for future years.

On December 1, 1961, the senior class presented "Life With Mother."

Julie Crowder was outstanding in portraying the ever patient mother. Dave Schieber played the blustering father. Their four sons, Clarence, Harlan, John, and Whitney were played by Richard Terrell, Stewart Hobson, Bob Morrison, and Raymond Park, respectively. John Prueitt as Doctor Humphreys did an excellent job. Wendy Pueschel as Kathleen, Marione and Marilyn Bauer as Margaret and Bridget, and Wendell Williams as Michael played the Irish servents. Phyllis Fullerton was excellent as Bessie Fuller. Ann Struempf and Andy Wedel contributed supporting roles as Cousin Cora and Clyde. Marilyn Movsesian had the role of Mrs. Willoughby; Janet McCombs played Hazel, her daughter.

The Spanish Club, one of the largest and most active clubs on campus, has again contributed a great deal to school spirit.

The club, under the guidance of Mr. Arthur Parrott, is composed of past and present Spanish students who are interested in learning more about the language and customs of the Spanish peoples.

During the year this active club sponsored a gym party, a Christmas party, an assembly, a Spanish movie, and their annual banquet.

Mike Hankins, past president of the Wasco chapter, Future Farmers of America, brought nation-wide publicity to Wasco when he was awarded the American Farmer Degree at the national convention, Kansas City, Missouri. Jimmy Earnest, first semester president, witnessed the ceremony as a representative from the local chapter. (A sidelight of the trip was a visit to Hoover Dam and the Grand Canyon of the Colorado River).

The State Farmer gold key was won by Bill Evans annd Jimmy Earnest at the state convention of the FFA at San Luis Obispo. Mike Hankins, past officer of the state association, made the presentation at the annual Parents' and Friends' Banquet of Wasco.

At the California State Fair, the chapter farm mechanics exhibit won the sweepstakes for the fourteenth time and with it a beautiful trophy, offered by the Salyer Grain and Milling Company of Corcoran. (This trophy must be won three times in order to become the permanent possession of the winning chapter). Gary Hill and Ricky Glover received statewide publicity when they were photographed by Mrs. Erwin (Buddy) Shrier, a member of the California State Fair board after the farm mechanics trophy was announced. The same farm mechanics' exhibit, consisting of projects made by vocational agriculture students at Wasco Union High School, won the sweepstakes trophy at the Kern County Fair in June and also the trophy for the outstanding exhibit.

A trophy for the ten best market hogs from one chapter was also won by Wasco's FFA. Bill Tackett had reserve grand champion barrow at the county fair; the Wasco chapter had grand champion carload of market steers.

At the Great Western Livestock Show in Los Angeles, Nick Bowles had the champion Hereford pen of three steers, which was made reserve grand champion of the show. The chapter had two first prize carloads of Angus steers, one of which was made champion Angus carload of the show, and a grand champion carload of market hogs.

Bonnie Bridge, popular member of the class of 1962, was chosen by the Wasco Future Farmers as sweetheart of the FFA. Lloyd Simpson, chapter president, presented her with the official jacket at the annual banquet.

Lloyd Simpson served as general chairman of the 1962 Parents' annd Friends' Banquet, sponsored each year by the FFA. The banquet was attended by over three hundred Future Farmers, their parents, and guests. Award winners presented at the meeting were as follows: Jimmy Earnest, California Bankers Association award; Nick Bowles, the Bank of America award for the FFA boy showing the most progress; Ralph Fox, the star greenhand award; Cecil Bowles, the Wasco Kiwanis Club award; Lloyd Simpson and Jimmy Earnest, engraved pens of chapter presidents; Gary Hill, livestock award for best livestock project; Jerry Serjeant, best crops award; Robert Long, farm mechanics award; Jimmy Serjeant, the chapter star farmer award, and with it the privilege of presenting his mother with an orchid corsage and a wool blanket—presented by the chapter to the FFFA mother of the year, based on her son's activities in project work and chapter undertakings.

In regional project work competition Jerry Serjeant and Gary Hill won gold awards, and Nick Bowles, a silver award. This competition was sponsored by the United California Bank.

Robert Long and Jerry Serjeant completed applications for the degree of State Farmer.

The enrollment of the vocational agriculture department reached an all time high of 112 students. One of the outstanding projects made by the farm mechanics' classes was a hay shed with a capacity of 3,000 bales for the storage of school farm hay, generally purchased by the FFA chapter from the high school.

Mr. Craig was elected as chairman of the California Agricultural Teachers' Association Professional Improvement Department. Mr. Spilsbury served as associate judge of 4-H sheep at the Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona and as judge of the carloads at the Great Western for the collegiate judging classes.

MR. CLEMENT, Advisor

The goal of the Art Club is to further student interest in arts and crafts. This fall interest in art was stimulated by oil painting sessions after school. In the spring students combined their common interest of art with pleasure, as they took a field trip to the foothills to paint wild-flowers. Purely social activities, such as a noon picnic on the school lawn and a beach trip, were also enjoyed by the members.

As these final words are written, I am reminded of our class of 1962, for which this book was composed. I hope the wonderful times we've had together are clearly illustrated here and that this Wasconian will make them unforgettable in our memories.

Personally, I want to wish each member of our mighty class success in the future. These past four years have been mere stepping stones to adulthood, and on June 1 as we accept our diplomas, we accept responsibilities, not only to ourselves, but to our country and the cause of world peace. Reflecting on the wonderful talents possessed by each individual graduate, I know that our generation will contribute much to the betterment of the world by remembering, "That life is long that answers life's great end."

Love and Godspeed to each student at Wasco High.

S. K. Smith Company, for covers and Mr. Shields, for advice and forbearance.

Printers Service Company, for book binding.

Merchants, for support through advertising.

Wasco High School Administration and faculty, for their cooperation and understanding.

Students, for their contributions and interest.

Wasconian Staff, for encouragement and confidence.

Mr. G. E. Appel, Advisor, for his moral support, essential suggestions, and unfailing patience.

Inherent in our democracy are the freedoms that the peoples of this nation have acclaimed as their own. But the successors who will inherit these liberties must also accept the responsibility of defending and upholding them. While the world remains in such a turmoil, the prime duty of this nation's inhabitants is to strive toward an ultimate goal of international peace. Only through their mature attitudes can people hope to attain the insight to achieve their purpose. The young men and women of America must realize this ambition, for theirs is to define and pursue the PATH TO PEACE.
